Dear Family of St. Peter's,

What great blessings I have received in being part of the St. Peter's family for the past three years! It has been a joy, a challenge, and a Godsend to be part of this great community since the summer of 2016. Thank you all for your generosity towards me, your kindness, your openness, and your commitment to our parish family. I have learned much and been formed into a better man and a better priest through your love and patience. Thank you!

As I am being transferred to St. Francis of Assisi I need to take this opportunity to apologize to anyone in the parish whom I have offended in any way. Please forgive me. Please pray to the Lord for me that I may become the priest and pastor the Lord desires me to become.

You are in good hands with Fr. Tomasz your new pastor. Pray for him, sacrifice for him, and love him. You are blessed to have him.

You are all wonderful people and I thank the good Lord for each of you. May his merciful love be poured out upon you in abundance. God bless you all!

Fr. Jim Crisman
