Proper Mass attire

*The Mass is an encounter with God, our King,
and a foretaste of eternal life in His presence.*

When we dress for Mass, we should be dressing with dignity and a total awareness that Mass is not a mere earthly activity, but an encounter with the perfect beauty of heaven. Please choose clothes fitting for encountering God Himself.

*For the Eucharist we should dress neatly and modestly.
Mass clothes that are too revealing (meaning they can be a source of temptation to impurity or unchastity for others) or too ostentatious are not modest.*

Please remember that we are also called to love our neighbor as ourselves – and our dress should not cause us to be uncharitable to others (either in our own appearance becoming a distraction to others; or in any tendency to see ourselves as “better” than others whom we deem as inappropriately dressed).

Please choose clothes fitting for the encounter with God Himself.

Fr. Tomasz's Weekly Reflection

The question asked in today's Gospel we often ask ourselves: "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" The question emphasizes the number: how many will be saved, many or few? Jesus' answer shifts the focus from "how many" to "how to" be saved. Christ wants to teach us to shift from curiosity to wisdom, from the emotional side of human nature, to dealing with real problems related to the Kingdom. He uses the opportunity to make us aware of the requirements for salvation.

Jesus first points out that the mere fact of knowing Him or belonging to a particular nation, race, tradition or institution is not enough for salvation. "We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets." But He responds "I don't know where you are from." In this way he expresses the truth that it doesn't matter to him where we're coming from. Origin, ethnicity, background, are not the conditions necessary for salvation. Something "different" is needed.

And this "different" is what Jesus wants to show by talking about the narrow door. Behind this "different" lies the personal decision of each one of us. Taking a steep and narrow road, being a sign of opposition; not just calling ourselves the followers of Christ, but truly being them. We cannot be among those who believe that there's nothing we can be accused of simply because they formally belong to the Church, are baptized and have our children baptized, cultivate certain religious traditions, etc. We need to be those who truly live by their faith, trying to love our brothers and sisters, praying, working together to bring about the Kingdom of God.

I am happy to be a Christian. Reading the Gospel, having the strength of the Sacraments at my disposal, having the community of the Church around me, it is certainly helping to walk towards God without making serious mistakes. It is also easier to straighten up when the evil has just crushed me to the ground. It's easier to rise when my own strength is not enough. However, I am not certain that who I am will guarantee me a place on the other side of the narrow gate, nor that it will be open when I reach it. Through faith, I trust that everything Jesus teaches me, I am able to apply in my life and thus be among those who will be with Him on the other side.
