SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

Thus the LORD passed before him and cried out: "The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." (Ex 34:6)

PSALM:

Glory and praise for ever! (Dn 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56 (52b))

SECOND READING:

Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. (2 Cor 13:11b)

GOSPEL:

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. (Jn 3:16)

REFLECT

FIRST READING

In Moses' appeal to the Lord to remain with the Israelites despite their sinfulness, God reveals his fidelity and mercy. Where do you see these aspects of God in your life journey?

SECOND READING

We hear today one of the earliest New Testament references to the Holy Trinity in Paul's closing remarks to the Christians in Corinth. For Paul, the Trinity embodies grace, love, and fellowship. What insight does this offer us about our Triune God?

GOSPEL READING

This well-known text from the Gospel of John reveals to us God's self-sacrifice for our salvation. Why do you think so many people reject or simply ignore this offer of eternal life from God?

CONFESSIONS RESUME

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10TH

Wednesdays 11:30 am

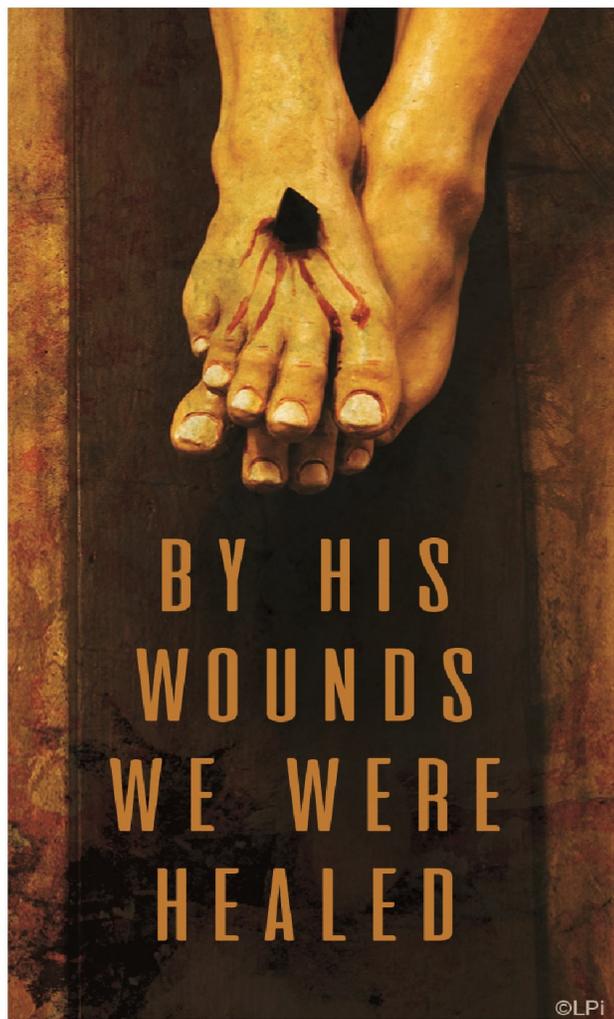

Saturdays 2:30 pm

Wearing a mask is encouraged.

Confessions will be held in the cry room and the parish hall.

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. - Jn 3:16-17

Fr. Tomasz's Weekly Reflection

Sometimes I have one of these days when nothing goes right, I get angry at everything and everyone, and instead of sitting back and thinking what to do, how to react, I revolt even against myself. It is not easy for us to comprehend our own inability, but much easier to blame our failures on others. If then it is often so difficult for us to have a hold of our own lives, we should not be surprised that's the case in relation to the mysteries of God.

The truth about the Holy Trinity is one of the most difficult dogmas of faith. To comprehend it, it is not enough to just read the Bible and the teaching of the Church that refers to it. Here you need something more: the humility of faith, which in a transcendent (extrasensory) way allows you to touch the realities of God's life as a unity of the Three Persons. God is not someone far away. God is close to us and wants to transcend all our being. Out of love He called man to life, out of love gave His Son into the world to redeem man through the sacrifice of the Cross, and finally out of love He sent the Holy Spirit, that He would lead us to holiness. Revealing to us the mystery of the Holy Trinity, Christ also reveals the mystery of man. The problem is how to understand it? God sent the Son – who is ... God, to earth, giving Him – God the Holy Spirit, who is ... God, or himself - to himself?

We must understand one thing - Faith in God existing in the Holy Trinity is the foundation of the teaching regarding Christ's mission and His redemption. And this is the basic and fundamental truth of our Catholic faith for all of us. The dogma of the Holy Trinity is above all the truth about the living God, whose life consists in mutual possession, mutual devotion and perfect exchange. By sanctifying grace, we participate in the lives of three Divine Persons, getting to know the Father through the Son, in the love of the Holy Spirit.

For us faithful, whether we have or not any theological education, it is impossible to fully understand the truth that in one God we confess the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, although we are aware that this is the most perfect community of life. God is perfect and there is nothing lacking in Him. In this unity of persons He is love, and – in fact – a selfless love. Similarly, a Christian family should be a community built on the foundation of love and unity. And finally, what is most important - the Holy Trinity teaches us practical and personal love. That's what we know. The rest we need to embrace with faith and imperfect comprehension, through the love of God.

God, One in the Holy Trinity, give us Truth and Love, enlighten our minds so that we can continue to recognize what You give us as your children. Holy, Holy, Holy.

ARCHBISHOP'S CATHOLIC APPEAL

The deadline for the Archbishop's Catholic Appeal direct parish support has been extended.

As a reminder, the first $1 million raised by the Archbishops' Catholic Appeal will go directly to parishes in order to provide support during this pandemic.

*Compassionate and Loving Father,
In the face of confusion and concern
impart to us the calm of Your presence.
In You allow us to find hope and healing.
Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands.
Be with those who lead and give them
Your spirit of wisdom.
Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart.
Wrap Your arms around our world
and hold us in Your love.
Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love
to all we meet.
We ask this in Your Name.
Amen*
