thank you

Despite constraints related to the coronavirus pandemic, parishioners of St. Peter Catholic Church generously donated over $5,534 this past Lenten season to the Guadalupe Community Center.

Lenten Box donations helped fund emergency Cold Weather Shelter operations which were extended to comply with the governor's initial "Stay-at-Home" directive. Our homeless neighbors were provided an additional 14-nights of shelter as our community faced an unprecedented health crisis.

The Lenten penitential practice of almsgiving, the corporal works of mercy that include feeding the hungry and sheltering the homeless, is clearly apparent through the unswerving support of St. Peter's parishioners.

If you still have a giving box at home or wish to make a donation —you are welcomed to bring it to the parish office. These funds will help us create a jump start to supporting the 2020 – 2021 Cold Weather Shelter cost!

Thank you for helping provide a safe warm space for those experiencing homelessness. With your generosity we can make a difference in the lives of those we serve.

~ God Bless

Fr. Tomasz's Weekly Reflection

Today the Gospel tells us the story of a mother. One can probably write an interesting book or at least an essay about any mother. Motherhood is fascinating, because it transcends the natural human abilities. And the woman in today's Gospel, the Canaanite woman, presents to us one of the aspects of motherhood: a great wisdom. On the surface it may seem that it's all about the faith: she had a great faith, believed that life depends not only on us, but above all on God, Jesus praised her faith in front of the apostles. However, I'd like to focus on her wisdom today.

There is something strange and at the same time surprising in Jesus' conduct in today's Gospel. The Canaanites, the people who originally inhabited the land of Israel, were in the Old Testament a representation of strangers, a people God warned the Israelites about, pagans who shouldn't be allowed to mingle with the Chosen Nation, who were to be engaged in a fight and exterminated. You can say that they were an image of sin or evil. However, this particular woman approaches Jesus and engages Him in a conversation, and to the surprise of his disciples, Jesus does not reject her automatically.

This Canaanite woman, burdened with the suffering of her daughter, continues to seek a solution to her problem. When we face life issues and difficulties, we wonder who we should turn to. People choose different paths, various directions. Some visit the offices of psychologists and psychoanalysts, some meet their friends in confidence, telling them about their troubles, mistakes and life failures. It is always easier when we share the trouble with others. But what is the best option?

For a disciple of Jesus, He is the most appropriate one. The attitude of a Canaanite woman is an attitude of desperation. There is a Polish saying that the drowning man grabs even onto the blade of a razor, which could be expressed in English, that the drowning man clutches at straws. There is nothing left to lose. Sin has such strength that it puts us against the wall, especially when it remains on conscience for a long time. While in case of this woman, the affliction is an experience of her daughter, she is the one who seeks help, and has already extinguished all other options, and in her desperate wisdom, she decides to overcome the human limitations, the obstacles present between the hostile nations, because she recognizes that the One she begs for help would not only be able help her, but also will not refuse her request.

The Canaanite woman's life situation requires such an attitude, and although initially Jesus does not express too much of an interest in her person and the problems she is experiencing, her consistency in asking for the healing of her daughter, her persistence and the wisdom with which she responded to Jesus' words, do not allow the Master of Nazareth to remain indifferent. Christ emphasizes the greatness of the Canaanite woman's faith, but we cannot overlook the fact that it was the wise response to Jesus' comment that made Him recognize her. It is her wisdom that made Jesus stop and look at her, and see what eyes cannot see: O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.

The wisdom of the Canaanite woman becomes an instrument that helps her approach Jesus, to patiently ask for His mercy - even in humanly hopeless situations.

Spiritual Adoption

Your adopted child is 5 Months old:

Half-way there and just over one pound! If born today, I would have a chance of surviving... with lots of help, of course. Your prayers have helped my mother with her pregnancy and helped her seek the support she needed the past few months since she learned about me.

"See now that I myself am He! There is no god besides me. I put to death and I bring to life, I have wounded and I will heal, and no one can deliver out of my hand."

Deuteronomy 32:39

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much.
I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion."

- Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Please continue to pray for an unborn child and to pray daily for the child and for their parents and to offer a daily personal sacrifice. Your prayer can make a difference between whether a baby will be born... or aborted. Our prayers are a form of spiritual support for both of the parents. Please share the love of life given to you by the Lord of all life and join in spiritually adopting a baby.
