

5 – Who is Jesus?

REDEMPTION

Jesus became incarnate, in the flesh, entering His creation.

He shows us how He loved His father so that we would love the Father that way too.

Christ rose from the dead, glorious and immortal, on Easter Sunday, the third day after His death.

Christ ascended, body and soul, into heaven.

Jesus assumed human nature without losing his divine nature

Jesus Christ is not part God, part man.

He is truly God and truly man, in the unity of his divine person

Because Jesus is both God and man, he is the one and only mediator between God and man

The Son of God became man in order to save us by reconciling us with God, so that we might know God's love, to be our model of holiness, and to make us partakers of the divine nature

Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is one divine person who possesses two natures.

He has a divine nature and a human nature, which are united in the one divine person.

This mystery of Christ is the profound union of the divine and human natures in the one person of the Son

Jesus's earthly life reveals his hidden divine Sonship and plan for our salvation.

His parables,

miracles,

sermons, and

wisdom sayings

help us “to see God made visible, and so we are caught up in love of the God we cannot see”.

PARABLES

Jesus's taught with authority.

This is particularly impressive when you consider the fact that Jesus's teachings and stories were so simple. We often have the mistaken view that the more intelligent and complex an idea sounds, the more impressive it is. Jesus didn't see it that way.

The parables of Jesus made the wisdom of God accessible. His teaching wasn't pretentious or unnecessarily complicated. And because of that, Jesus made the kingdom of God attainable for everyone.

John 3:16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

John 4:13, 14 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

John 10:10, 11 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

John 10:27-30 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. I and my Father are one.

John 14:6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.
