Fr. Tomasz's Weekly Reflection

In the Gospel passage we read today, we witness a profound moment where the disciples, especially Simon Peter, encounter the divine presence of Jesus. This passage reveals how human fear can arise from a sense of unworthiness before God's holiness and how Jesus reassures us, inviting us to embrace divine grace and transformation.

In the narrative, Jesus instructs Peter to cast his net into deeper waters after a fruitless night of fishing. The result is a miraculous catch, overwhelming in both quantity and significance. Witnessing this, Peter falls to his knees, exclaiming, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." Peter's reaction is one of fear, rooted in the awareness of his sinfulness and the overwhelming holiness of Jesus.

Peter's fear reflects a common human sentiment that began with the first sin of Adam and Eve: the dread of being unworthy before a Holy God. When confronted with divine purity, our imperfections and failings become glaringly apparent. This fear is not simply about punishment, but about the profound sense of inadequacy and the belief that our sinfulness makes us incompatible with God's holiness. However, it is precisely in these moments of fear and self-awareness that God's transformative grace is revealed. Jesus' response to Peter is not one of rejection but of invitation and reassurance. "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." Jesus acknowledges Peter's fear but redirects it towards a new purpose, emphasizing that it is through divine holiness that our lives are transformed.

We often forget that it is God's holiness that can liberate us from our sinfulness. In our fear, we may try to distance ourselves from God, believing we are too flawed to stand in His presence. Yet, it is precisely by drawing near to God's holiness that we can find the strength and grace to let go of our sins. Jesus' interaction with Peter teaches us that God's holiness is not a barrier but a bridge. It is an invitation to let go of fear and embrace the transformative power of God's grace. By acknowledging our shortcomings and surrendering to God's holiness, we can experience true freedom and purpose.

As Catholics, we are called to recognize our fears and confront them with the faith that God's holiness is our path to redemption. Peter's encounter with Jesus on the shores of Galilee is a powerful reminder that our sinfulness, when met with divine holiness, becomes an opportunity for grace and transformation. May we, like Peter, hear Jesus' words, "Do not be afraid," and trust in the healing and life-changing power of God's holiness. Let us not shy away from His presence but embrace it, knowing that it is through His grace that we are made whole.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

In the first reading from the prophet Isaiah, we get a glimpse of a model for Christian stewards to follow. Within the temple, God's voice shakes the foundations and causes the natural world to shake and tremble. The Lord asks: "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" Isaiah replies to the call of God for service with immediacy and enthusiasm: "Here I am, send me!" There is no hesitation. There are no excuses, contingencies, or "what-ifs." Good stewards know that responding to the Lord's call to serve is never easy, never simple to grasp, never designed for ready comfort and success. But the call needs a response. What about us? What does it take to shake us into an enthusiastic response? To say to God: "Here I am, Lord. Send me!"

The Proclamation of the Kingdom of God

“From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, ‘Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.’”

—Matthew 4:17

“After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: ‘This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the Gospel.’”

—Mark 1:14-15

“[Jesus] said to them, ‘To the other towns I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God, because for this purpose I have been sent.’”

—Luke 4:43

Reflection by Bishop Robert Barron

The first words out of the mouth of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark are a call to conversion: “The kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe in the Good News.” Let’s take a closer look at the invitation Christ places on offer.

First, repent. Notice that the life, preaching, and mission of Jesus are predicated upon the assumption that all is not well with us. A salvation religion makes no sense if we’re all basically fine, if all we need is a little sprucing up around the edges. Christian saints are those who can bear the awful revelation that sin is not simply an abstraction or something that other people wrestle with but a power that lurks and works in them.

Second, believe in the Good News. Something here is being brought to completion. What is it? It is the story of Israel itself. Jesus fulfills in his person the entirety of the Old Testament and this is why his presence is so compelling and why following him is of paramount importance. The Good News is he himself, and it’s time to make a decision. When Jesus calls, we have to respond—the time is now.

As we pray this decade, let us contemplate Jesus’ proclamation of the coming of the kingdom of God as the inbreaking of a new world, one that commands us to change our way of thinking and acting.

Jubilee 2025

December 24, 2024-December 23, 2025

Characteristics of the Jubilee

Pilgrimage

A pilgrimage can be a physical journey to a new place, but it can also be a spiritual journey. "Pilgrimage is an experience of conversion, of transforming one's very being to conform it to the holiness of God." (iubilaeum2025.va)

Holy Door

The goal of a pilgrim is to pass through the Holy Door at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. It symbolizes entering into communion with Christ.

Reconciliation

An important component of a Jubilee year is reconciliation with God; it is an ideal time to make God the number one priority in our lives. We are encouraged to receive the Sacrament of Penance.

Prayer

"There are many reasons and ways to pray, but at the root of prayer is always the desire to be open to God's presence and His offer of love. It is the Spirit of the Son that calls the Christian community to prayer and allows for each person to return to the Father." (iubilaeum2025.va)

Liturgy

The liturgy is the public prayer of the Church. Our most important liturgy is the Mass. During the Jubilee year, there is also a special liturgy where the Pope officially opens the Holy Door.

Profession of Faith

"The profession of faith expresses the central content of the faith: it succinctly captures the main truths that a believer accepts and witnesses to on the day of his or her baptism and shares with the entire Christian community for the rest of his or her life." We can say either the Apostles Creed or the Nicene Creed.

Indulgences

There are special indulgences that can be obtained during a Jubilee year. An indulgence essentially erases or reduces the punishment in purgatory due to our sins. (More details on indulgences to come.)
