Fr. Tomasz's Weekly Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus shares the Beatitudes with a multitude, offering profound wisdom and guidance. His message invites us to look beyond the material and temporary aspects of our lives and focus on our spiritual journey toward eternal life. Jesus' words remind us that our true wealth lies in our relationship with God and the promise of His kingdom.

The message in Luke resonates with the words of Paul in 1 Corinthians 15:19, from the second reading: If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are the most pitiable people of all. Paul emphasizes that our faith in Christ transcends the fleeting moments of our earthly existence. Our hope is rooted in the promise of eternal life, a hope that surpasses all temporary concerns.

In our daily lives, we are often tempted to prioritize immediate gratification and worldly success. The world presents us with numerous distractions and pursuits that can lead us away from our true purpose. Wealth, power, and pleasure are frequently seen as the ultimate goals, but they are fleeting and ultimately unsatisfying.

Jesus calls us to a higher purpose, encouraging us to seek the kingdom of God and to invest our efforts in nurturing our spiritual lives. By doing so, we align ourselves with the eternal joy and fulfillment that come from living in communion with Him. It is through this relationship with God that we find true and lasting happiness.

As we reflect on today's readings, let us remember that we are called to focus on the eternal life promised by Christ. Our ultimate reward is not found in the temporary achievements of this world, but in the everlasting kingdom of God. Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, and strive to live in a way that honors Him, knowing that our true treasure lies in the eternal life He has prepared for us.

In embracing this perspective, we become better equipped to face the challenges and opportunities of our daily lives. By prioritizing our spiritual growth and our relationship with God, we cultivate a sense of peace and purpose that transcends our immediate circumstances. This eternal focus shapes our decisions, our actions, and our interactions with others, allowing us to live in a way that reflects our faith and commitment to Christ.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

The prophet Jeremiah minces no words in today's first reading: "Thus says the LORD: Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings ... whose heart turns away from the LORD." And the prophet's "beatitude" resembles that of Jesus' teaching in today's Gospel reading when he proclaims: "Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, whose hope is the LORD." Good stewards understand that what the world values is not consistent with Gospel values. They realize that God has placed in their midst all the gifts, charisms, and resources needed to bring Christ to a world desperately in need of his loving presence. But to exercise good stewardship over God's gifts takes a great deal of trust. How does our stewardship reflect our trust in the Lord? What did we do today to give others hope in Christ Jesus?

Trust in the Lord Cross-Word

Here is today's first reading, from Jeremiah.
Fill in the blanks using the words from the list and fit them into the puzzle.

Thus says the Lord:

8a is the one who trusts in 7d 17a,
3a seeks 4d strength 18d flesh,
whose heart turns away 16d the Lord.
12d is like a 13a 17d in the desert
11a enjoys no change of season,
14a stands in a lava waste, a salt and empty earth.
Blessed is the one who 5a in the Lord,
whose hope is the 15d.
He 2d like a 11d planted 14d the waters that stretches out its 19a to the 6d:
it fears not the 21a when 20d comes; its leaves stay 1d
in the 10a of drought it shows no 9d,
but still bears fruit.

The Transfiguration of the Lord

“Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, ‘Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; then from the cloud came a voice, ‘This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.’”

—Mark 9:2-5, 7

Reflection by Bishop Robert Barron

Jesus goes up the mountain with Peter, James, and John. This seemingly ordinary man from Nazareth, this brother of theirs, this fellow Israelite, is then transfigured before them, his face shining like the sun and his clothes becoming white as light. The Greek term behind our word “transfiguration” is metamorphoō (to go beyond the form you have). The metamorphosis of a caterpillar comes to mind. This ordinary Jesus—and there is no indication that they have lost sight of who it was—somehow became transformed, elevated, enhanced in his manner of being.

The first thing we notice is that his appearance became more beautiful. One of the classical features of beauty is claritas or radiance: his face “shone” and his clothes became “white as light.” The proximity of his divinity in no way compromises the integrity of his humanity but rather makes it shine in greater beauty. These somewhat grubby bodies of ours—whose beauty lasts for a fleeting moment—are destined for a transfigured, elevated beauty.

Secondly, in his transfigured state, Jesus transcends space and time, since he is pictured talking with Moses and Elijah, figures representing the Law and the prophets of the Old Testament. In this world, we are caught in one moment of space and time, but in heaven, we will live in the eternal now of God’s life—a higher, richer, more beautiful, and spiritually fulfilling life awaits us.

For this decade, think about how the mystery of the Transfiguration doesn’t just reveal who Christ is—it reveals who we sinners are called to become: eternal sons and daughters of the living God.

Jubilee 2025

December 24, 2024-December 23, 2025

Scan here to read the entire Bull

Papal Bull

Each jubilee in the Church is proclaimed with a Papal Bull. A Bull is an official document, usually written in Latin, which bears the seal of the Pope and whose title is the subject of the document.

The Papal Bull for the 2025 Jubilee is titled “Spes Non Confundit,” which means “Hope does not disappoint.”

Here are a few quotes from the Bull.

“By his perennial presence in the life of the pilgrim Church, the Holy Spirit illumines all believers with the light of hope. He keeps that light burning, like an ever-burning lamp, to sustain and invigorate our lives. Christian hope does not deceive or disappoint because it is grounded in the certainty that nothing and no one may ever separate us from God’s love.” (see Romans 8:35-39).

“Christian hope consists precisely in this: that in facing death, which appears to be the end of everything, we have the certainty that, thanks to the grace of Christ imparted to us in Baptism, ‘life is changed, not ended.’ Buried with Christ in Baptism, we receive in his resurrection the gift of a new life that breaks down the walls of death, making it a passage to eternity.”

“Hope finds its supreme witness in the Mother of God. In the Blessed Virgin, we see that hope is not naive optimism but a gift of grace amid the realities of life.”

“The storms that buffet us will never prevail, for we are firmly anchored in the hope born of grace, which enables us to live in Christ and to overcome sin, fear and death. This hope, which transcends life’s fleeting pleasures and the achievement of our immediate goals, makes us rise above our trials and difficulties, and inspires us to keep pressing forward, never losing sight of the grandeur of the heavenly goal to which we have been called.”
