Fr. Tomasz's Weekly Reflection

Happy Easter! Today, we gather to celebrate the greatest truth of our faith: the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. This is the day when life conquers death, light overcomes darkness, and hope is reborn in the hearts of all believers.

In our Gospel reading from John, we hear the simple yet profound phrase: Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark. It was in the darkness, in the uncertainty and grief of that early morning, that the miracle of the Resurrection unfolded. The stone had been rolled away. Christ had risen.

This detail in the Gospel speaks volumes to us. The Resurrection – the ultimate victory of Jesus over sin and death – did not wait for daylight, for clarity, or for certainty. It happened while it was still dark. This is a powerful reminder for us: we do not have to wait until we have everything figured out, until we feel “ready,” or until all is perfect in our lives for God to bring about new life within us. God works in the darkness. God raises us up even when we are surrounded by uncertainty, pain, or fear.

Sometimes we fall into the trap of thinking we need to fix everything in our lives before we can come to God. We believe we must have all the answers, leave our struggles behind, and present ourselves as “worthy” of His grace. But Easter teaches us the opposite. It is precisely in the darkness of confusion, doubt, and brokenness that God calls us to rise. Just as Jesus conquered death from the darkness of the tomb, so too can He bring us to new life in the shadows of our own struggles.

Consider Mary Magdalene. She went to the tomb mourning, her heart weighed down with the loss of Jesus. She did not yet know neither understand the fullness of the Resurrection. She didn't have clarity or a plan, but she still went to seek Him. And it was in that darkness, in her moment of searching, that she encountered the empty tomb – the first sign of new life.

This Easter, let us take that same step of faith. If you are struggling with doubts, fears, or burdens, remember that you don't need to have it all together before turning to God. Allow Him to meet you “while it is still dark.” Let Him roll away the stones in your life – the barriers of fear, shame, or guilt – and bring you into the light of His grace.

Easter is not just about what happened in that empty tomb 2000 years ago; it is about what God wants to do in our lives today. The Resurrection is God's promise that no darkness is too great for His light to overcome, no sin too deep for His mercy to redeem, and no life too broken for His love to renew.

Alleluia! Christ is risen, and with Him, we are raised to new life.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Alive in Christ! That's what we are. Among the many readings of Easter, Saint Paul reflects on this "newness of life" in his letter to the Romans. The Christian life is a resurrected life. It is new life, one of truth, inner joy and genuine fulfillment. God has transformed our lives for all eternity, and that transformation is what it means to be a Christian. Do you know the resurrected life? Have you genuinely experienced it? Good stewards have; and in their commitment to the Lord, they know what it means to be alive in Christ. It is time to rejoice. He is risen! Alleluia!

Spiritual Adoption

I am 1 month old.

I have been very active the past month. I am 10,000 times larger than I was at conception. My eyes and nose are starting to form and I already have arm buds and leg buds. I have the building blocks for my brain, spinal cord, and nervous system. My heart is now pumping blood through my own circulatory system and my blood type may already be different from my mother's. Thank you for the prayers that the Lord of Life might help her give me the most precious gift of all -- the gift of life.

EARLY in the MORNING, while it was still DARK, Mary MAGDALENE had gone to see JESUS' TOMB. But when she got there she found it EMPTY! She ran and got SIMON PETER and the other DISCIPLE to show them. The STONE had been rolled back. The two men went in and saw that the BODY was gone, and only the BURIAL CLOTHS were sitting there. They BELIEVED although they didn't yet understand what the SCRIPTURE said about the RESURRECTION of Jesus. Mary stayed WEeping outside, but when as she stood LOOKING in, she saw two ANGELS. Then she saw a man in the GARDEN. She thought He was the gardener until He said, "MARY!" Then she knew who it was:

The 5th Sorrowful Mystery (Last Week)
Intro to the Glorious Mysteries
The 1st Glorious Mystery (Next Week)

The Glorious Mysteries at a Glance

1. The Resurrection
2. The Ascension
3. The Descent of the Holy Spirit (Pentecost)
4. The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin
5. The Coronation of the Blessed Virgin Mary

In the Glorious Mysteries, we meditate on the awe-inspiring miracles that take place after Jesus' death. These events show how Jesus is who he says he is – the Son of God. We experience the joy of the risen Christ and imagine ourselves as Mary or the first disciples (The Resurrection). As we pray, we see Jesus' Ascension into heaven and the Descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The last two mysteries, though not explicitly mentioned in Scripture, come from hundreds of years of tradition based on passages from Revelation and the Song of Songs. We celebrate the grace and the role Jesus has bestowed upon his mother (The Assumption and Coronation of Mary), and we pray that where Mary goes, we will one day as well.

The Glorious Mysteries are typically prayed on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Did you know?

- The Easter Season is the most important liturgical season in the Church. Without Christ's Resurrection, his death would have been meaningless.
- Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon of Spring (between March 22nd and April 25th)
- Every day of the first 8 days of the Easter season is a solemnity. (If a solemnity falls on a Friday, the usual Friday penance is suspended)
- The Easter Season lasts 50 days, from the Resurrection until Pentecost.
