Fr. Tomasz's Weekly Reflection

Today's readings remind us that Jesus, the Good Shepherd, calls us to follow Him – not for earthly success or comfort, but for eternal life. He assures us, "I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish". However, as disciples, we must understand that following Christ may bring suffering and persecution, just as Paul and Barnabas experienced in Acts. Yet, if we remain faithful, we will stand among those in Revelation who have survived the time of great distress and are now in God's presence forever.

In the passage from the Acts, Paul and Barnabas boldly preach the Gospel, yet they face opposition. Their message is rejected, and they are driven out of the city. But instead of despairing, they rejoice and continue their mission. Why? Because their hope is not in worldly success but in faithfulness to God's will. Their obedience, even through trials, leads to the ultimate reward – eternal life.

In the second reading we see a great multitude who have endured suffering yet now stand before the throne of God. They have been purified through their trials and are clothed in white robes. This is our destiny if we remain faithful. Though we may endure difficulties, we are called to persevere, trusting that God's promise of eternal life far outweighs the struggles of today.

Finally, the Gospel reassures us that Jesus knows His sheep and will never abandon them. He does not promise an easy life, but He does promise that His followers will never perish. The challenge for us is to remain faithful, even when following Him leads to hardship.

This all reminds me of a story: In 1974, when Senator Mark Hatfield observed Mother Teresa caring for the abandoned and dying, he was struck by the overwhelming suffering she and her fellow workers faced each day. Deeply moved, he asked her, "How do you bear this burden without being crushed by it?" Mother Teresa, with characteristic humility and wisdom, responded, "My dear Senator, I am not called to be successful; I am called to be faithful."

So, how does this speak to us today? We may face moments when doing God's will feels costly. Perhaps we fear rejection, uncertainty, or making sacrifices. Yet, Jesus invites us to trust in His promise – to choose faithfulness over fear, knowing that our reward is eternal, not temporary.

The Descent of the Holy Spirit

"When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim."

—Acts 2:1-4

Reflection by Bishop Robert Barron

After Jesus' Ascension, the disciples—the core of the Church—are gathered in the upper room, where the Holy Spirit descends upon them. The Spirit is not a force or a principle but rather a person, that divine person who is the love shared by the Father and the Son, the love that God is. From that event, timorous and largely uneducated men became fearless evangelists, ready and able to spread the Gospel far and wide.

We get some clues as to the nature of the Holy Spirit from the descriptions offered in the New Testament: wind and flame. The term "Holy Spirit," of course, just means Holy Breath—Spiritus Sanctus. Wind is mysterious, blowing where it will, coming and going in unpredictable ways. When you have the Holy Spirit in your life, you are not in control. You cannot command the Spirit to come; you have to wait for him and pray for him, as the disciples are portrayed as doing. And once he arrives, you have to be ready to move according to his prompting.

And the Spirit is like fire. And mind you, not just fire, but tongues of fire. The Holy Spirit, who is nothing but communication between the Father and the Son, inspires fiery speech: clear, distinct, and uncompromising speech on behalf of Jesus. And this proclamation is public, not private. The first thing the disciples do once they realize that the fire has fallen upon them is to go out and preach the Gospel.

A Heartfelt Thank You to Our Parish Community!

We are incredibly grateful to St. Peter Parish for allowing us to showcase our programs and for your unwavering support of Catholic Charities of Weld County. Your congregation helped us raise $40,166! Your generosity, prayers, and commitment make a lasting impact on the lives of those we serve—providing safe shelter, meals, and support for homeless families and individuals in need.

We couldn't do this work without you! Your kindness helps us bring hope, stability, and care to so many in our community.

Thank you for being the hands and feet of Christ, walking alongside us in service to those in need. May God bless you abundantly!

Saint Dymphna

Feast: May 15th

Patron of Those with Mental Illness/Depression/Anxiety

Quick Facts

- Born in Ireland in the 7th Century
- Consecrated herself to Christ at age 14 and took a vow of chastity
- Her father suffered mental illness after the death of her mother.
- When her father couldn't find a new wife he desired, evil advisors suggested he marry his own daughter.
- Dymphna fled with her confessor Gerebran and a few others to what is modern day Belgium.
- When Dymphna's father found them, he murdered both Dymphna and Gerebran.
- Dymphna has multiple shrines built to her, including one in Belgium, one in Ohio, and a school in Ireland. Miraculous healings of mental illness have taken place due to her intercession.
